UM HOMECOMING PARADE SET FOR OCT. 12

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana Alumni Association is accepting applications for entries in the 1996 Homecoming Parade, scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 12.

This year's theme, "Takin' Care of Business," pulls together the end of current construction on campus and the dedication of the new William and Rosemary Gallagher Building for the School of Business Administration.

Applications can be picked up at the alumni office on the first floor of UM's Brantly Hall. The deadline for returning them is 2 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 9.

The parade begins at Higgins Avenue and Pine Street and proceeds across the bridge south to University Avenue, then east to Arthur Avenue. For safety reasons, semi trucks will not be allowed in the parade. A length limit of 40 feet for floats will be enforced.

Awards will be given in four categories: commercial, non-profit, grade- and high-school student groups and UM student groups.

Call the alumni office at 243-5211 for more information.
